

STENBECK GROUP DESCRIPTION

Stenbeck group publicly-listed companies include:

- Kinnevik - investment holding company with substantial holdings in forestry and paper products and financial interests
- Invik - investment holding company
- TELE2 - Pan European telecommunications
- Modern Times Group (MTG) - television, radio and media
- Metro - newspapers
- Transcom Worldwide - European call center operations and Customer Relationship Management
- Millicom International Cellular - international cellular telephony

Great Universal businesses include:

- Military electronics
- Satellite pay TV
- Advertising
- Call center operations
- Telecommunications technology research and development
- Telecommunications consulting
- Computer network systems integration
- Telecoms billing systems
- Transactions processing and clearing house activities.

SISF, business risk management and financial investigation, set the following goals:

- To ensure a sound control environment based on integrity, responsibility and accountability
- To pursue fraud, corruption and other bad practices and to hunt down the perpetrators
- To provide clients with an independent and objective means together with the tools to police and monitor the organization
- To be a catalyst for improvements in systems, processes and behavior across the business units.
- To earn the professional respect of the organization